Notices

Mrs Osman would like to remind you that children should be in full school uniform at all times.

Children should be wearing black school shoes not trainers or shoes with decorative patterns or bright colours,

Could you please make sure that children are not wearing jewelry and nail varnish in school and long hair is tidied up at all times.

Toys should not be brought into school as school can not take responsibility for them if they are lost or damaged.

It is gardening time again and we are interested in growing vegetables in school. We are in need of plants and seeds, so if you would like to donate any we would be very grateful. Thank you.

The choir will be singing at The Place, Oakengates on Tuesday evening.
